

NEFA Convention report 1/23/13

We are 5 weeks a way from the convention. We need you to get registered if you are not already registration will go up to $30 Feb 1st. Would like to mention do to some difficulty with our merchandise vendor we will be selling our own shirts and coffee mugs but will have a very limited suply so please let your home group know if they want shirts or mugs they will need to get them early. We will also be having a silent auction this year with sports stuff lots of ravens super bowl stuff will be there please help us out by pitching in on the auction. We are also working on getting our non-profit status done this should be complete by the convention. Again please get registered we are under 200 and need to be at 550 to break even. Start pushing.
